

Counselling Overview

Welcome to e-counselling.

It is the first online counselling system for admission process of MCA(Master of Computer Application) through JECA(Joint Entrance for Computer Application) under Various Govt. & Private Institutions in West Bengal.

There is a big physical difference between an offline and online counselling system but in nature both are same. e-counselling system is highly logical system not a statistical counselling system so candidate will no need to worry about the counselling process and rules. It's is simple and everybody understandable. Candidate will get all counselling related information in <http://www.ecounselling.tk/>
